March 1, 2018

eLearning conference 2018

BY THE NUMBERS

116 attendees

75% RUC
9% RCBC
5% CCC
5% RCGC
5% Other

73% in person
22% live stream
5% mix

95 percent of attendees felt the conference met or exceeded expectations

93 percent of attendees would recommend conference to a colleague

CONFERENCE GOALS

1 Promote best practice in online, hybrid, and classroom teaching and learning

2 Excite interest in pedagogies supported by educational research

3 Encourage faculty to share meaningful teaching ideas & experiences

FAVORITE SESSIONS

"Finding Open Educational Resources (OER)" roundtable discussion led by Tracie Paulson and Zara Wilkinson
•••
"Students dish on online learning"
five-student panel
•••
"Course design for all learners"
by Christie DeCarolis
•••
"Evaluating online courses"
roundtable discussion led by Gail Caputo

WHAT DO ATTENDEES PLAN ON BRINGING BACK TO THEIR CLASSROOMS?

student polling	social media	Adobe Spark	new discussions	OER	VoiceThread

"This was a great conference, well organized with a lot of informative speakers and conversations. Thank you so much for hosting and organizing it."

"I really enjoyed the conference and took away something new from each session I attended. Great job! I'm already looking forward to next year's conference."

"I really liked the format. I enjoyed the short, engaging sessions that provided a wide array of topics to choose from."